

FRENCH LEARNING PACK

This pack is to be used to supplement learning at home when schools are closed due to snowy conditions/adverse weather.

Resources needed: It would be useful for pupils to have access to online French dictionaries or hard copies.

Colouring pencils and vocabulary books would also be useful.

Useful websites for pupils to revise French at home:

Virtual Teacher Centre - Flash resources with sound clips from the Welsh NGfL

BBC Primary French - Flash-based site for basic French.

Primary French E-Learning - very good site with lots of activities covering the basics.

Merryman Primary Resources - some free resources including a play in French which can be downloaded.

Primary Resources - downloadable worksheets.

Chez Mimi from Channel 4 - French Flash-based website aimed at primary.

French Video Resources - brilliant (and free) resources which include video clips plus a transcription of the speech.

French Radio - listen to real French Radio on the net.

Paris Webcams - live views of the Eiffel Tower, Notre Dame, the Champs Elysees and more.

360 Degree Views of the Seine - choose a view then use your mouse to turn 360 degrees. Requires Quicktime. French Clipart

www.linguascope.com - there is a subscription price for this excellent site.

www.atantot-extra.co.uk - pupils play this in class and really enjoy the activities. This is a free site. (Fling the Teacher, Penalty etc)

www.zut.org.uk - this is free after 4pm and before 9am.

Worksheets to be printed and completed at home.

The alphabet

You may well have to spell out your name and perhaps your address in French. Here is the alphabet and the way it is pronounced:

Letters that end in an -ee sound in English end in an -ay sound in French:

b c d p t v

Letters that start with an 'e' sound, like English 's', are virtually identical in French:

f l m n s

The vowels are short sounds:

a e i o u

For g and j swap the English pronunciation around:

j g

The remaining letters are:

h - pronounced ash k - pronounced like the ca in cat
q - pronounced coo r - pronounced air w - pronounced doo-bla vay x - pronounced eeks y - pronounced ee grec
z - pronounced zed
